

Privacy statement

Thank you for visiting our Website and reviewing our privacy statement. The Association is committed to safeguard the privacy of our members, customers and other contacts.

Any information you choose to provide on the website will only be used to provide or improve our services. The Association safeguards your privacy and appreciates your trust.

Personally identifying information that you provide by e-mails, etc. will be used only for such purposes as are described at the point of collection such as to send information to you, up-date information or to respond to your questions or comments. If you provide contact information, the Association staff or its volunteers may contact you to clarify your comments or questions, or to learn about your level of satisfaction with our services.

During your visit as you browse through: the Website, read pages, or download information, we will automatically gather and store certain information about your visit but not about you. This information does not identify you personally. We automatically collect and store the information.

We use this information to help us make our site more useful to visitors and to learn about the number of visitors to our site and the types of technology our visitors use. The data that are collected are not connected to your personal information or identity.

We reserve the right to change or modify this privacy statement at any time. If we revise our privacy statement, we will post those changes on the homepage and other pages so you are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances, if any we disclose it.

This website is published under the direction of the Operations Manager and advice of the Communications Committee. We reserve the right to edit all articles. The opinions expressed are those of the writer and not necessarily of the Board, Editor or Communications Committee.

P.O.A.S.C does not endorse or guarantee the performance of its advertisers.